

APPENDIX J

WASHINGTON LATIN MIDDLE AND UPPER SCHOOLGuidelines for Responsible Technology Use

Please read the following guidelines. Both parents and students must sign this form and return it to the advisor/homeroom teacher as soon as possible.

Washington Latin expects appropriate and ethical use of the school's technological resources consistent with the school's mission and acceptable student behavior. Technology resources supplement the learning process and provide access to a diversity of experiences, opinions and cultural perspectives. On or off campus, use of technology potentially harmful to the Washington Latin community and/or that results in the disruption of the school, is strictly prohibited. Violation of these guidelines is taken very seriously.

- Students understand that technology in all of its forms on campus is provided for educational purposes only and that the school, at its sole discretion, restricts student use of computers for any other purpose.
- Students understand that the hardware and software on campus are the property of The Washington Latin School and that the school retains authority to gain access to any files on its servers and computers, including email.
- Students will respect the privacy of others. Students will not log into accounts (including email) or use files owned by others without permission.
- Students will not download, install, copy, or change software on Washington Latin-owned computers.
- Students will not intentionally access material that is pornographic or that advocates illegal acts, violence, or hatred toward any group of people using Washington Latin computers.
- Students will not use technology on or off campus to harass or participate in malicious behavior towards any person, including faculty, students, and staff of the Washington Latin community.
- Students will not intentionally produce, copy, or distribute any computer code or program designed to self-replicate, damage, or hinder the performance of any computer system or software.
- Students will not intentionally modify or destroy hardware that belongs to the Washington Latin School, including keyboards and monitors.
- Students will not attempt to breach the security system or disrupt the normal operation of the network.
- Students will acknowledge information and images obtained from the Internet as belonging to others using appropriate citation methods.
- Students will respect the intended privacy of email messages and will not tamper with the mail of others or circulate or distribute email messages of any sender without permission. Students will not misrepresent themselves as another person in electronic communications.
- Students will not take images of staff or fellow students on campus or during school sponsored events and post them on public access sites.
